

Vocal recital
Thursday 10th December

BRAVE

Hello,

Is that the right ending for feminine plural?

Thank you for a lovely concert yesterday and a great performance I thought (especially in the chilly church!). It was a beautiful varied programme and you sounded great. Really enjoyed it. Well done on those high notes too - where were the highest ones, was it in the Gounod?

Well done again to you and Sian, and frohe Weihnachten!

Richard

What a wonderful recital today! Thank you both so much for a lovely programme and engaging performances. I really enjoyed it.
